Carnival of the Animals! An Adaptive Concert

Date and Time: Tuesday, July 23 11:00 am - 12:00 pm

Address: 86 Gibson Street

Featuring

Chloe Weston, piano

Dakota Scott-Digout, piano

Trevor Copp, actor

Concert Description

Trio Carnival presents a zoological fantasy of mime, movement and music through Camille Saint-Saens' Carnival of the Animals, featuring duo pianists Dakota Scott-Digout and Chloe Weston with mime artist Trevor Copp. This family-friendly Adaptive Concert is designed to welcome and support neurodivergent attendees, people with disabilities, and others who benefit from a relaxed and accessible environment. All ages are welcome!

The Carnival of Animals is a classical music composition by Camille Saint-Saëns, often used to introduce children to the world of classical Western music with movements devoted to elephants, chickens, and turtles. Our production features pianists Chloe Weston and Dakota Scott-Digout performing this incredible piece alongside Trevor Copp's Mime-inspired interpretation of these animals – watch him become a clucking, growling, and flapping parade of animals who bridge this wonderful music to the hearts of children and adults alike.

Ticket Reimbursement

To eliminate financial barriers to attendance, we will refund your ticket when you arrive at the concert. If you wish to donate to Xenia Concerts, please select the "donation" option and enter the amount you would like to contribute.
